CAMPAIGN LIES.

This, says the Sacramento Record-Union, is the last week of the political canvass, and therefore we are justified in anticipating the advent of the usual crop of campaign lies. The nature of the campaign lie is very easily ascertained, however, if a little reflection be employed. When, for instance, the public observe that some serious charge is preferred against a candidate just at the end of a campaign, the rational presumption always must be that the charge is false. It is a rule which admits of few exceptions that everything which can be honestly alleged against candidates is brought forward in the early part of the campaign. Long before the close the public are in possession of the facts. Whatever allegations are made at or near the close may safely be set down as campaign hes. And the more serious the charge preferred at the close of a campaign the more certain is it to be false. Witness the infamous Morey letter forgery, which was sprung on the very eve of election, and at a time when it was impossible to deal with it properly. It may also be regarded as certain that the charges against candidates which appear towards the close of the campaign in journals which have been conspicuous for their bitterness during the canyass are spurious. And it may be said generally that it is always safest to distrust any serious charges which are made at such a stage of the campaign, and to put down all stories which appear the day before the election as March 8, 1879: certainly false and fraudulent. It may be doubted whether votes are often changed by campaign lies, but the Morey letter showed that they are sometimes quite seriously affected by such infamous devices, and therefore it is too much to hope that they will be given up by partisans and others who have selfish interests to serve.

NOTHING LIKE SUCCESS.

It is an old saying, and indeed a truthful one, that nothing in this world is so successful as success. Never was there a more striking example of the such returns shall be directed and detruthfulness of this maxim than that exhibited by the failure of the rebel cause the following order; Second, the Countries Egypt. Arabi Pasha rebelled against ty Recorder; third, the County Treasurthe tyranny of European taxgatherers. er; fourth, the County Assessor, mon, the Chairman of the Board of County Had he been successful in driving the Commissioners; sixth, one of the Board invading army into the sea, he would of County Commissioners, etc." Had he been successful in driving the have been crowned a hero and applauded at home and abroad instead of being county the returns should not be sent branded a rebel and placed on trial for to either the County Clerk, Auditor or his life before a jury of barbarians. The rebel would have been a patriot had he vindicated his doctrine that Egypt should be juled by Egyptians; he is only less than that because his troups were unable to cope with the English army.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

nomines for County Superintendent of Public Schools, needs no words of com- lands under the homestead and preevery sense, and is an educator in the broadest and best sense of that term. He has always evinced a deep interest in our public schools, and has been a life-long devotes to the cause of education. The Superintendent of the Publie Schools is not, and should not, in any sense, be considered a political office. In the selection of a man for that important position capability, fitness, the mental and moral training of the candidate, should be considered without reference to his political predilections. All these qualifications are post sessed by Mr. Jenvey in a pre-emmendegree, and the people of this county will commit a grievous error if they fail to elect him.

The London Globe accuses Premier Gladstone of log-rolling, and announces that in return for the Irish party's support on the cloture resolutions in the House of Commons, he will, at the first the investigation and trial of the cases opportunity, introduce a fresh scheme for Irish legislation during the next session. The Star Route Scaudals.

The Star Route scandals now seem likely to break out in a new place. According to the latest story, several officers and clerks in the Department of Justice are to be discharged for revealing the secrets of the prosecution to the defence. Several persons are said to be implicated in this business. During it was noticed that the defence had important information as early as the examination which, it is said, disclosed involves some quite prominent officers at the Department.

Marching On.

Mrs. John Brown had a very enthusiastic reception by the colored people on Monday evening, Hon. Thomas Russell, Reverend Dr. Seviler, Wm. Wells Brown, Lewis Haydon, and others, both white and colored, made addresses, and a poem, written by Dr. Oliver Wendell Holmes, was read. At the conclusion of these exercises some 500 people W. W. Hanscom, of San Francisco, is shock the lady's hand. Numerous interesting reminiscences of slavery days were related, as most of those who took in the troubles of that period.

FLASHES.

The Prussian Diet has reported favorably on the bill for the acquisition of all the railways by the State.

The strike in the East Liverpeol, Ohio, potteries, inaugurated five months ago, is practically at an end. Of 700 strikers all except 150 have returned to work or moved away.

The elections throughout Norway for delegates to the Storthing have proved a crushing defeat to the Government. Four-fifths of the members returned are Republicans.

Ismael Pasha Eyoub having declined command of the troops to be sent against the False Prophet, the English Governor has consented that English officers shall lead the expedition into Soudan.

M. De Lesseps telegraphs that he has sent by post a declaration in favor of Arabi Pasha. De Lesseps' evidence is considered as being unfavorable to Arabi; as proving that whenever he exerted himself to prevent outrages he was able to do so.

The Government has ordered increased surveilance of the Socialists living in Germany to be exercised by the police congregate. It is feared that they have formed some sort of connection with the Geneva and French anarchists, whose recent outbreaks alarmed those countries.

Judge-Advocate Swaim, in reply to an inquiry of the Secretary of War, takes the ground that officers of the army who refuse to pay their debts are liable to processes of the common law the same as civilians, and that where their acts tend to bring discredit upon the army the same, together with one of the tally or in any way impair the efficiency or lists and one of the poll books, under discipline of the service, will constitute cover, directed to the Clerk of the Board sufficient cause for court-martial.

Colonel Thomas Buford, who killed other officer as is herein provided, in- Judge John Mellot at Louisville, Ky., dorsed, 'Election Returns;' provided, about three years ago, and was subsection if said Clerk of the Board of Commissioners, as County Clerk, or any one of the following named county officers, was voted for office at diana. As there is no criminal charge murder, it is believed he cannot be livered to the county officer who was brought back. He is a brother of the

A CHANGE OF BASE.

The Last Dirty Attack on Powning

[Eureka Loader, Oct. 31.]

There is a great deal of excitement through the State concerning a card in the Virginia Chronicle, purporting to have been written by W. H. Mitchell, of Grass Valley, in which he claims that Hon, C. C. Powning, our candidate for Congress, owes him a board bill, etc. Mr. Mitchell's card closed with this remark:

"Hoping that this will be of advise to voters of Nevada State, I remain, respectfully, W. H. Mitchell."

Now, that is considerate in Mr.

Mitchell, and the voters of this State The California Immigration Society will doubtless remember him for his kindness with a chromo. About two Mr. Mitchell, but of everybody in Grass Valley who knew Mr. Powning. Mr. Mitchell has changed his base since that time; but that need not be wondered at when we state that a certain individual in Eureka, working in Mr. Cassidy's interest, promised this caid of Mr. Mitchell's at least one week before it appeared. The natural inference is that valleys in Monterey county, some of Mr. Mitchell was approached by some one, and sold himself to a party in or der to majure the "boy" he claimed to hold in such high estimation.
